

Transforming the lives of those around you is a pretty great job perk.

Joining one of the world's most respected professions* is just icing on the cake.

Choosing a profession that provides an opportunity to impact those around you can be transforming. The comprehensive wealth of knowledge you acquire as a resident in family medicine makes that impact even greater.

With vast contributions to underserved communities, medical schools, and residency programs, family medicine and education are among the most respected professions in the world.*

Applying for resident membership in the Society of Teachers of Family Medicine (STFM) is an easy and important step to advancing your career, as well as championing family medicine.

Resident membership benefits include:

- Resident-specific scholarships and webinars
- Outstanding resident support, including access to the Residents as Educators curriculum, and CERA, a free and invaluable resource for medical education research
- Access to the industry's leading family medicine education conferences with dedicated categories for residents
- Subscriptions to Family Medicine, Annals of Family Medicine, PRIMER, and the Messenger, STFM's e-newsletter
- Networking opportunities with leaders in one of medicine's most rewarding professions
